

ABSTRACT. The purpose of this paper is to completely characterize the topology of three-dimensional Riemannian manifolds with a uniform lower bound of sectional curvature which converges to a metric space of lower dimension.